

JD Number: 705

Title

data security analyst

Description

Our client is looking for a Security Analyst to manage security incidents for the organization. Will apply advanced IT security concepts to resolve complex security issues. Responsibilities include:Generate, track and facilitate completion of security incident related tickets. -Prioritize and rank escalated incidents. -Provide support in the detection, response, mitigation, and reporting of cyber threats affecting client systems.Lead investigation for breach and critical system incidents. Train and mentor student and support center staff on IR activities. Facilitate collaboration on IR activities. Investigate risk and exposure to threat reports from external agencies and take appropriate block or notification.Select methods, techniques and evaluation criteria to obtain results.

Demonstrate expertise in incident response practices, system and network forensics and infrastructure security functions. Provide breach detection, incident response, forensic examination, malware analysis/remediation and breach coordination.Desired background includes being a skilled incident response and malware analysis professional with strong technical acumen, incident management capabilities, and sound written and verbal communication skills.

Advanced experience using IT security systems and tools.

Demonstrated skills applying security controls to computer software and hardware, knowledge of data encryption technologies and experience selecting and applying appropriate data encryption technologies. Broad knowledge of other areas of IT. Demonstrated knowledge of secure hardware, software and network design techniques. Able to analyze and prevent security incidents of high complexity. Advanced experience in incident response and digital forensics including reporting.Preferred

Qualifications / Competencies GCIH, GREM. GCFA or similar certifications

Skills

incident response, forensics, data encryption, malware analysis